

Investigation of Tunisian Dimension Stone Resources.

Six quarries were assessed to determine the quality of stone produced and its suitability for exportation to a UK masonry factory with very specific production requirements. The ability to supply certain volumes of block, including the shipping arrangements, was also assessed. Expert geological interpretation allied to simple and immediate insitu testing was carried out. Much later laboratory investigation confirmed all the findings.

